

Reflection Sheet

A GUIDE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

What is Reflection?

Reflection is like taking a pause button on life and thinking about what's happening.

It's about looking back at experiences, feelings, and thoughts to understand them better. This can help you learn about yourself, make better decisions, and grow as a person.

Think of it like this:

- Looking Back: What happened? Who was involved? Where were you?
- Thinking About It: How did you feel? What did you think? What was good about it? What wasn't so good?
- Learning From It: What did you learn? What would you do differently next time? How can this help you in the future?

Why is Reflection Important?

Self-Awareness:

Understanding your strengths, weaknesses, likes, and dislikes.

Problem-Solving:

Figuring out how to tackle challenges.

Decision Making:

Making choices that are right for you.

Personal Growth:

Becoming a better version of yourself.

Emotional Intelligence:

Understanding and managing your emotions, and recognizing emotions in others.

Improved Relationships:

Better understanding leads to better connections.

Goal Setting:

Figuring out what you want and how to get there.

Increased Confidence:

Knowing yourself better can boost your confidence.

Reflect Activity

Choose one of the following situations or think of a recent experience that stands out to you. Then, use the questions below to guide your reflection.

Situations to consider:

- A time you felt proud of something you did.
- A disagreement you had with a friend or family member.
- A time you tried something new and it was difficult.
- A moment you felt really happy or excited.
- A situation where you had to make a difficult choice.

Reflection Questions:

1. Describe the situation:

What happened? Who was there? When and where did it take place?

2. What were your thoughts and feelings?

How did you feel during the situation? What was going through your mind?

3. What did you do?

What actions did you take? Why did you choose to act that way?

4. What was the outcome?

What happened as a result of your actions?

5. What did you learn?

What did this experience teach you about yourself, others, or the situation?

6. What would you do differently next time?

If you could go back, would you change anything? Why or why not?

7. How can this help you in the future?

How can what you've learned apply to future situations?

Next Steps:

Keep practicing reflection! The more you do it, the easier it becomes. You can use a journal, talk to someone you trust, or simply take a few minutes each day to think about your experiences. Happy reflecting!
